

The GUITARIST enters. He moves with calm authority, taking his time to settle. He adjusts his position multiple times, examining his guitar, his hands. A theatrical pause. Then he plays.

I. LA ENTRADA

Clarice V. Assad

After the third chord, he looks up at the audience and smiles before continuing into the next phrase.

FOR THE PIANIST:

2

The GUITARIST plays proudly, unaware.

The PIANIST sneaks in from behind, crossing to his position.

He catches the audience's eye, smiles mischievously, and gestures "Shhh." He settles at the piano and begins to play.

GUITARIST:

The GUITARIST freezes mid-phrase, startled. He whips his head around to look at the piano, mouth slightly open in surprise. A beat. Then he smiles, listens for the piano riff for a while, and eventually joins in.

This system contains measures 200 through 203. The piano part begins in measure 200 with a piano (p) dynamic, playing a series of chords. In measure 202, the dynamic shifts to mezzo-piano (mp) as the piano part moves to a more active, melodic line. The guitar part features a rhythmic pattern of eighth and sixteenth notes. The violin and viola parts play a similar melodic line, while the cello part provides a harmonic foundation with sustained notes and some movement.
